Preface of Christian Unity, Eucharistic Prayer 3, Mem. Acc.1

Psalter Week 2

THE WORD THIS WEEK

The Gospel of this second Sunday of Ordinary Time continues the theme of the Epiphany - revelation. Jesus is revealed to the world by his birth, by his baptism, and by his miracles - the "signs" as John calls them. The wedding in today's Gospel is interpreted in many ways: today, reading the Gospel with the First Reading in mind, we can see it as an image of the way in which God is so close to his people, it is as though he is married to them. Thus Jesus, the spouse of the people, shows God's closeness by revealing his glory in this miracle.

This is the site of Jesus' first miracle, and a special place for all pilgrims to visit. To have run out of wine would have been very embarrassing to those hosting the wedding feast, and since these feasts could last as long as a week there would naturally be quite a bit of wine needed. As we all know from the Bible, Mary told the servant "do whatever he tells you" and the water was turned into wine. Not just any wine, apparently, but the very best. There is a Franciscan Church here, called the Wedding Church, built upon the remains of earlier Crusader and Byzantine churches. Inside the church you can go down to the crypt area where you will see a grill placed over a water pot. This is merely a small reproduction, since the 6 stone jars that held the water that Jesus turned into wine held about 23 gallons each. While visiting Cana with a group those who are married often like to have their marriages blessed by the priest traveling with the group. There is also a Greek Orthodox Church in Cana.
