THE WORD THIS WEEK

A prophet's job is to open people's eyes to the reality of their situation - pointing out to them the things they would rather forget or ignore. A prophet is a sort of "national conscience", always awake to situations of injustice and always speaking out about them. A prophet is commissioned to do this by God, who sends the prophet on his mission. Jesus is just such a prophet - teaching and preaching about the Kingdom of God and the best way to live. Despite the welcome his message has received elsewhere, when he comes to his hometown he is faced with rejection -such that "he was amazed at their lack of faith." It is curious is that they seem to accept his wisdom, and his miracles, but because he grew up among them they cannot accept him as a teacher from God. We should remember that it is often hardest to stand up for the truth among those who know us well.

GENERAL NOTICES

Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. Today's second collection is for Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), the Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. This collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you. To donate online please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk

Data Protection - Parish Magazine

Amongst other things, the Parish Magazine records highlights in the parish year. This will involve the inclusion of names and photographs on occasions. If you would prefer it if your (or members of your family) name and photo did not appear in the magazine, please let the Parish Office know immediately. Alternatively, if you provide an email address, we can send you a copy of the article before publication for your approval.

Second Collections This weekend Apostleship of the Sea.

Summer BBQ Today July 8 at St Charles, 1-5 p.m. Bring your own drinks and chairs and join in a fun afternoon. Tombola, games and other entertainment. Free entry. Items for the Tombola will be gratefully received.

Sick lists

Due to the new data protection law, the sick lists have had to be temporarily suspended. We now need written permission from anyone who wishes to be included on the sick list, particularly as the newsletter is published on the parish websites. Forms are available at the back of both churches which should be signed by the person who wishes to be listed. In cases where this is not possible it can be signed by a relative or visiting parish representative such as Eucharistic Minister or SVP. Please hand the form to the Priest or the office.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St Augustine Zhao Rong was a Chinese diocesan priest who was martyred with his 119 companions in 1815. Among their number was an 18 year old boy, Chi Zhuzi, who cried out to those who had just cut off his right arm and were preparing to flay him alive: "Every piece of my flesh, every drop of my blood will tell you that I am Christian." Feastday 9 July
